

Like getting back home
for Thanksgiving—they satisfy!

Thanksgiving with the old folks at home—it does satisfy! For your smoking, Chesterfields do the same thing—they satisfy!

But Chesterfields are MILD, too—that's the wonder of it.

Don't expect this new cigarette enjoyment (softly, yet mild) from any cigarette but Chesterfields, because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobacco and the biggest discovery in cigarette making in 30 years.

Barks Chapel

I haven't seen any items in THE PRESS from this place, and thought I would try my hand.

Health is reasonably good and everybody is enjoying the fine weather.

Several of the farmers of this vicinity attended the speaking at Lutesville Saturday and a good time was reported.

Mrs. John Poston has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dora Sprengel, the last week.

Norman Poston visited the Drum school Wednesday and seemed to think it was doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Huffman, who were recently married, have settled down to work—since the honeymoon is over—cutting corn, making jelly etc., just like old folks Hurah for them!

Messrs. Lee Poston and Clarence Huffman were guests of Elmer and Orlando Huffman Sunday.

Rev. Harve Patton, who has been pastor at Barks chapel the last year, was elected for the ensuing year, but refused to accept it.

Linus Poston is going to work for W. H. Moore next week.

Norman Poston called on his best girl Sunday afternoon.

Adam Seiler is sowing clover seed.

Two Cities.

Mount Pleasant

Rev. Patterson delivered an excellent sermon at this place Sunday evening.

A sad accident occurred near the Brush Creek church house Sunday. A team of mules became frightened and ran away, resulting in the death of Grandma Van Meter and the serious injury of Mrs. Kennedy.

Mrs. Mary Harty is visiting friends and relatives in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Faries returned home Saturday.

Fred and Jim Scott went to Dunklin county Saturday in search of employment.

Misses Opha and Ula Nichols spent Sunday with Miss Cecil McDaniel.

Misses Mayme and Edith Scott visited Mrs. Joe Faries Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and youngest children visited Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fronabarger Sunday.

Misses Verda Johnson and Blanche Jones and Messrs. Reuther Dewitt, Chas. Gaddis and Venas Johnson attended church at Brush Creek Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Steward and children and Mr. and Mrs. Holliday and children visited Albert Durham's Sunday.

Wm. Peters took a load of wheat to Zalma Saturday.

The pie supper and entertainment given at this place last Thursday night was well attended.

E. Williams is running his sorghum mill this week.

Misses Blanche Jones and Verda Johnson were shopping at Zalma Saturday.

BANK.

Cape Girardeau Items

Everything seems quiet since the fair.

W. S. Lowe of St. Louis, formerly of Lutesville, is here now.

E. T. James, Isom Mouser and Cora Corbin of Zalma were here last week. Mr. James was on his return trip from St. Louis.

Corbie Wiggins of Greenbrier and Lyman Mouser of Zalma visited home folks Saturday and Sunday. They are attending school here.

A search was made here for relatives of Frank Swan, who met his death at Kansas City last week by falling down a flight of stairs.

L. Kern and wife and Sherman Abernathy and family of Zalma moved to this town recently.

A section foreman of the C. G. & N. railroad was killed near Jackson last week. The accident was unknown to the railroad crew until he was found. His body was in a mangled condition. The train passed over the center of his body.

William Jennings Bryan will speak here October 17.

The new band is progressing nicely under the careful management of Chas. Armgardt.

The Cape Republican stated that ten brass bands will accompany Bryan when he speaks here.

Buckner & Ragsdale's new store building is almost completed.

Berlin Sides of Zalma, who is under treatment at the St. Francis hospital, is getting along nicely.

The United States dredge No. 5 is here now.

W. D. Hinkle and family and Grandma Hinkle attended the fair and visited relatives.

Come on "Blue Eyes" with your items.

Gipsy

Health is reasonably good. Chas. Gaddis went to Dunklin last week to seek employment.

Joe Barnes and Ruther Dewitt had business in our town Saturday.

Messrs. W. H. and H. D. Nichols attended the democratic rally at Lutesville Saturday.

Some of our farmers have commenced to gather their corn.

Miss Cecile McDaniel visited her friend, Miss Opha Nichols, Saturday night.

Misses B. D. Jones and Verda Johnson went to Zalma on business one day recently.

Church services at Gipsy were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Lacy returned home from an extended visit at Marquand Wednesday.

As news is scarce, I'll quit.

NORRIS.

Baptist Church

GEORGE W. GRAHAM, PASTOR

The revival planned for some time by the church is in progress. Rev. Sitton was unable to come and Rev. Sorrell, pastor of the church at Jackson, is doing the preaching. His sermons are strong and deeply spiritual.

The services are being well attended and it is hoped many may be saved and the church greatly revived. All Christians are earnestly invited to come and help. The meeting is not merely for the Baptist church—not that at all. It is an effort to deepen the spiritual life of the community in every direction. The salvation of lost men and the greater consecration of those who are saved is the sole aim of the campaign. May we not count on you?

Rev. Sorrell had to go to his own church last Sunday, but from now on to the close of the meeting he will be with the church here. Pray that the hopes and aims of the meeting may be realized.
